

Press Release: May 22, 2017

Westwood Music Group would like to congratulate country artist singer/songwriter Brian Clayton on the placement of his original song 'She Let Me Go' in the upcoming feature film 'The Big Sick' a romantic comedy about how a new couple deals with their cultural differences as their relationship grows.

'The Big Sick' was directed by Michael Showalter and produced by Judd Apatow, Barry Mendel and stars Kumail Nanjiani, Zoe Kazan, Ray Romano and Holly Hunter. 'The Big Sick' debuted on January 20, 2017 at the Sundance Film Festival. The film secured a distribution deal with Amazon Studios, Lionsgate and Film Nation. A U.S. release date is set for July 14, 2017 and international release date is set for October 2017.

The song 'She Let Me Go' was co-written by NY/NJ natives Gary Costello and Brian Clayton and published by Westunes Music (ASCAP).

It is the 3rd track on Brian Clayton's self-produced debut release 'Extended Play'.

Co-writer Gary Costello, is a singer songwriter from NYC. He has been a staple in the NY/NJ music scene for over 20 years. He perfected his song writing craft by performing nightly at NYC's proclaimed Bleeker Street venues.

Brian Clayton is a country artist, singer/songwriter and producer. He has two CD releases and currently working on a 3rd with his group The Green River Band. He has been recording, touring and spent the last 15 years working for SPI-Nashville as the Eastern Regional Band Director for the musical talent show The Country Showdown (formerly the Colgate Country Showdown)

In support of the movie, a re-mixed version of 'She Let Me Go' will be officially released and available for electronic download on iTunes, Amazon and CD Baby. A national media promotion campaign is set for June 2017.
